

I am a big fan of satellite radio. I purchase satellite radio service each month because I want to be able to choose the programs, music, sports, information, etc. to which I listen. I do not think that the NAB should be able to censor and/or control what is available to me on a private, for-pay radio broadcast. I think that the FCC should reject NAB Petition 04-160.